* NOTE: SWIFT is a worldwide organisation based in Belgium which executes cross-border payment transactions. SWIFT operates a worldwide network through which financial transaction messages are exchanged between banks and financial institutions. The Bank transfers clients' data contained in their international payment orders (title, name, surname, address, account number, amount, purpose of payment) for the purposes of the execution of payment orders to SWIFT and the latter transfers those data to the payees' financial institutions.

In order to protect the system and the data processed, data transferred to SWIFT are temporarily stored in its two operation centres in Europe and the USA. The Bank publishes this information in order to inform its clients in accordance with the recommendation of the Office for Personal Data Protection of the Slovak Republic in reaction to the possibility of US authorities accessing the data stored in SWIFT's operation centre in the USA in connection with fighting international crime and terrorism.

- Payees and their payment service providers and intermediaries involved in the transfer of funds for the purposes of providing banking products and services (effectuating the transfer of funds upon clients' orders and preventing money laundering and the financing of terrorism)
